Mrs de Lisle

Very many thanks for your very kind letter which reached me here today. I am so very sorry I was not able to visit your studio as I should have very much enjoyed it. But I am already away on my

Please thank Mrs de Lisle very warmly for her letter which I am answering to your address as she asked me holiday & shall not be staying in London again till just before I go to Geneva on Sept 4. There I shall be till the beginning of October when I go to Rome & shall not be back in England till about Oct 10 by which time you will I fear have gone to America. So I'm afraid the sittings will have to be postponed till January. I am so very sorry

Yours very sincerely
Cecil
