12. 6. 1933.

The Berkeley
Berkeley Street
London, W.1

Laszlo

Dear Mr. de Laszlo,

It is my hope that you have not forgotten your kindly promise to let me come to your studio to see the portrait of Mrs. Bowring Hanbury.

A few days ago Mr. Colin Agnew and I were speaking of you. His praise of your work is without bounds.

Trusting that you and your admirable wife and family are well,

and wishing you the best of everything,

Yours sincerely,

E. Laws.