MARLOW COMMON

MARLOW, BUCKS.

April 20th 1935.

My dear Philip

I am very sorry to hear that you and Lucy have not been well but I am glad you both are all right again now — ~~it~~ was unlucky to get laid up after your trip abroad. Here there is still a good deal of 'flu about and it is an easy thing to catch. Many thanks for the "Illustrated" with your portrait of Dean Inge; it is a good reproduction and a very excellent example of your work. You must have found him an interesting sitter if he talks as well as he writes — I have read a good many articles by him and they suggest that he is a sound thinker with a very logical mind.

Two so many thanks for saying that you would like me to come to you on the 4th of May, I am very sorry I cannot manage it but I have just undertaken to write the text for a small book which is to be published by the "Studio" and I shall not be able to get away until it is finished. It is only a small job but it has to be done against time and I have to deliver a section of the letterpress each week till the whole thing is complete — it will take me about a month altogether, I think, but I shall clear it off as quickly as I can.

The country round here is beginning to look very pretty and springlike, as the leaves are coming out fast and the daffodils and primroses are making quite a show. I have been doing some odd jobs in the garden on fine days but I am afraid I shall have to let garden work wait now until this book is finished.

All our most affectionate greetings to you both always yours

A.L.B.
