

WOLMER WOOD,

MARLOW, COMMON

MARLOW, BUCKS.

April 11th 1934

My dear Philip

When did you come back? I heard from Kendrick a day or two ago that he had seen you so I knew that you were at home again, and I hope feeling all right. How did you and Lucy enjoy your stay in Morocco and how are you both after your wanderings in distant parts of the world?

I want to see you, to read to you the article for "Everyman" so that I can get your opinion on it before I send it to the editor.

May I run up to lunch one day quite soon and read the thing to you? I have to send it in next Week so I would ^{like} you to hear it during the next few days. I could come on Friday, if you would phone me when you get this, or I could manage Monday or Tuesday next week, whichever suited you best. Or is there any chance of your being able to run down here on Sunday? We should be exceedingly glad to see you if you can.

Anyhow, if you will let me know which day will suit you
I will arrange accordingly.

Our love to you both — I am glad you are back again.

Always yours

A. L. B.
