

WOLMER WOOD,

MARLOW COMMON,

MARLOW, BUCKS.

May 3rd 1936.

My dear Philip

On the back of this you will find a paragraph bringing in the signpost; it comes better at this place in the middle of the paper than at the end. In the end paragraph a more hopeful note is struck so you do not want to mention there a lost signpost; but in the middle of the paper the fact that the signpost has been lost comes quite appropriately as you are asking the intelligent men to put it up again.

Always yours

A.L.B.