Dear dr de Laszlo

Thanks so much for your kindness on sending to my daughter your autograph signed on a card with your portrait, she feels very honoured of having it, please excuse me on not having answered before to your so kind letter, but as I heard from your Secretary you intended returning to London about the 15th of this month, I thought it should be safer writing you there.
Most probably your Secretary has explained to you that the words of my dear ghter was to have the pleasure of having your autograph on her album for this reason when we were staying in London we remitted it to your Secretary who had the kindness to promise us she would keep it meanwhile until your return from Cap d'Ail requesting you to sign it and afterwards she would send it over to us in Paris.

Please excuse me for giving you so much trouble on account of my daughter who was so much to have your autograph signed as she sees on your name the greatest exponent of portrait painters of our times, she is a great admirer of the fine picture painted by you of her mother which is considered in Buenos Aires to be one of your chefs d'oeuvre over there.
We were very sorry not to have seen you on our last stay in London, I hope some other time we shall have more luck.

Believe me yours sincerely
Carlos del Solar Dorrego
