

14th December 1923.

Dear Mr. Alberti,

On my return home from Rome I received your letter of November 3rd, and we regret very much to hear that you have been unwell in a Sanatorium, and do hope by now that you have fully recovered.

As I had no news from you until now, and as indicated in your letter there was a possibility of your coming to London this month, I had not despatched the picture which is already to be sent off. I am however now giving instructions for the picture to be carefully packed, insured, and despatched to the address given in your letter.

We had a most interesting time in Rome and enjoyed very much the festivities on the occasion of the Spanish Royal Visit.

I much look forward to hearing from you.

My wife joins me in warmest greetings to
