

WOLMER WOOD,

MARLOW COMMON,

MARLOW, BUCKS.

Oct. 27th 1924.

My dear friend

many thanks for your note from Paris. I expect you are finding London rather a dismal hole after your lively times abroad — the weather is perfectly beastly, is it not? Please give my best thanks to Mrs de Lasslo for her card; I hope to be with you Wednesday afternoon and to hear an account of your recent doings. Till then, au revoir.

always yours

A. L. Baldry