

South Devon Group Meeting
The Courtenay Centre
Newton Abbot TQ12 2QA

50 Years of Change in Devon Birdlife

Presented by Mike Langman

Monday 20th March 2023 @7.30pm

Members and Non-Members Welcome

Mike Langman is a well-known artist and speaker, whose presentational skills are well matched by his artistic prowess. In this talk, Mike takes a look at the changing status and our understanding of some of the birds recorded in Devon over the last 5 decades. From Egrets to Crests to Sparrows and Buntings, even Pochard and Guillemot plus many more.

The meeting will take place at the Courtenay Centre in Newton Abbot (near the Cricketfield Car Park) at 7.30pm and lasts about 2 hours, including refreshments

Entry £3 for members and £4 for non-members including tea/coffee

Talks in 2023

17th April – Managing the Exe Estuary Reserves-Natalie Holt-RSPB

18th September – Why Birds are Attracted to Estuaries-Roger Avery

16th October – The Birds of Dartmoor-Prof. Charles Tyler-Exeter University

20th November- All at Sea & up the Creek!- birdwatching from a Kayak-Rupert Kirkwood

Further information available from the Secretary jeff.hacon@devonbirds.org